

*The RAI Goes to the Movies:
An American First World War Centenary Series*

A film series exploring what the American people were watching during and after the First World War, on the following Mondays at 5pm, Rothermere American Institute.

Hilary 2017

13 February (Week 5): Shoulder Arms (1918, dir. Charlie Chaplin, 46 mins)
Introduced by Dr Alice Kelly

27 February (Week 7): The Big Parade (1925, dir. King Vidor, 141 mins)
Introduced by Dr Michael Hammond

Trinity 2017

1 May (Week 2): Wings (1927, dir. William Wellman, 144 mins)
Introduced by Jack Doyle

15 May (Week 4): Sergeant York (1941, dir. Howard Hawks, 134 mins)
Introduced by Professor Adrian Gregory

Discussion to follow each film
Popcorn will be served

Rothermere American Institute
1a South Parks Road
Oxford
OX1 3UB

AMERICA'S HOME AT OXFORD