

AMERICAN HISTORY RESEARCH SEMINAR

Seminars will be held in person at 4pm on Tuesdays at the Rothermere American Institute, except where noted. To receive updates and pre-circulated papers, please join the AHRS mailing list by sending a blank email to: ahrs-subscribe@maillist.ox.ac.uk.

Krysten Blackstone, Salford
21 Jan : Morale: A Revolutionary Idea?

John Bird, Oxford
28 Jan: 'Anishinaabe Albion: Indigenous Diplomacy, Performance, and Resistance in the British Isles'

Andrew Fearnley, Manchester
4 Feb: "Harlem Interdit": Paris-Match and European Uses of Harlem, c.1964-c.1975

Tom Bishop, Lincoln
11 Feb: 'Glow Boys: Temporary Workers and the Making of Atomic Capitalism'

John G. Winant Lecture in American Government

Kimberley Johnson, New York University
5 pm, 18 February: 'The End of Black Politics'
This lecture will be held at the Rothermere American Institute

Jan Stievermann, Heidelberg
25 Feb: 'Rediscovering James W.C. Pennington, Black Reformed Minister and Activist'

Joanna Cohen, Queen Mary
4 Mar: 'The Cost of Sympathy: Perceptions of Suffering in the New York City Draft Riots'

Emma Hall, Warwick
11 Mar: 'An Exceptional Identity: The Role of US History Education in (Re)Producing American Exceptionalism'