

WINANT SYMPOSIUM

Social Movements and the American State

Co-sponsored by Nuffield College and the Rothermere American Institute
University of Oxford
15-16 June 2017

PROGRAMME

Framed by a book manuscript recently completed by Sidney M. Milkis (John Winant Visiting Professor American Government, Rothermere American Institute) and Daniel Tichenor (Philip H. Knight Chair of Social Science, University of Oregon) – Rivalry and Reform: Presidents, Social Movements and the Transformation of American Politics – this meeting will consider the critical but rarely examined relationship in American Politics between national administrative power and social movements. Four panels will examine the question of whether major change is a product of 'top-down' or 'bottom-up' politics – or a complex interplay between the two.
