

AMERICAN HISTORY RESEARCH SEMINAR

Seminars will be held at 1pm Tuesdays, except where noted. Please note that some sessions will be held online and some in person. To receive Zoom links and pre-circulated papers, please join the AHRS mailing list by sending a blank email to ahrs-subscribe@maillist.ox.ac.uk.

Frank Cirillo, Bonn

25 Jan: 'A spectacular fall: Moncure Conway's Civil War'

This event will be held on Zoom.

Vincent Brown, Harvard

1 Feb: 'Tacky's Revolt: the story of an Atlantic slave war'

This event will be held on Zoom.

Kate Dossett, Leeds

8 Feb: "'The American invasion of our theatre": Black cultural archives, African American theatre makers and surveillance in 1940s London'

This event will be held on Zoom.

Winant Lecture in American Government

Nazita Lajevardi, Michigan State University

5pm, 15 Feb: 'The politics of American Islamophobia'

This event will be held at the Rothermere American Institute.

It is open to the public.

Niklas Olsen, Copenhagen

22 Feb: 'The birth of neoliberal anti-environmentalism in the United States in the 1960s and 1970s'

This event will be held at the Rothermere American Institute.

Sandra Scanlon, University College Dublin

1 Mar: 'Selling the enemy's atrocity: the "Vietnam Syndrome" and popular understandings of American warfare after the Cold War'

This event will be held at the Rothermere American Institute.

Aniko Bodroghkozy, Virginia

8 Mar: '#Charlottesville: media events and the long struggle against White supremacy'

This event will be held at the Rothermere American Institute.